DETAILED ACTION

This office action is in response to Paper No: 14, received 6/9/03.

Claims 8-14 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The rejection under 35 USC 112, first paragraph of claims 8-14 is maintained for the reasons set forth in the previous office action.

Applicant argues that the rejection does not embrace claim 9, since claim 9 is not addressed to pathologically proliferating mammalian cells. However, the examiner notes that claim 8 encompasses pathologically proliferating cells and claim 9 is dependent upon claim 8. Further, claim 9 also recites pathologically proliferating cells.

Applicant argues that the rejection is one for lack of utility, masquerading as a rejection under 35 USC 112. However, the examiner notes that an argument in the absence of evidence is not persuasive.

Applicant argues that the Dermer reference has several defects for the purpose on which it is relied. However, the examiner notes that based on the teachings of unpredictability regarding in vivo therapy which are taught in the prior art, persons skilled in the art would not associate in vitro results with in vivo therapeutic efficacy. Applicant's specification fails to contain sufficient disclosure to overcome the teachings of unpredictability which are found in the art. Ex parte Balzarini 21 USPQ2d 1892 (BdPatAppl &Int. 1991).

Conclusion

All claims are rejected.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
